P. M. CHRISTOPHERS IS SAID TO HAVE FORSWORN O. T. I.

Also Promises To Leave The Country

Witnesses to Such A Statement Are Said To Be Available

That P. M. Christophers has gone on record as severing his connection with the One Big Union is the statement brought to Calgary by a Drumheller man, who says that Mr. Christophers of his own free will and accord, subscribed before witnesses to the following declaration:—

"I, P. M. Christophers, do solemnly declare that I am through with the O.B.U. or L.W.W. movements. That I see I have been wrong, and have been misleading ignorant men who do not know any better. I realize that I have made a serious mistake, and that during these times of war I should have been otherwise engaged. I am sorry and apologize for what I have done, and here on my bended knees before God, I swear that I will have nothing more to do with this movement, and that I will leave the country."—Calgary Herald.

Carnegie's System

The death of Andrew Carnegie will lead to much discussion on the value of the life of the eminent manufacturer and the worth of the system which permits the accumulation of such vast fortunes.

Carnegie came to America with no money and without unusual prospects. He accumulated a very enormous fortune, which, when he retired from business a quarter of a century ago, he proposed to give away by contributions to public libraries and educational institutions throughout the country. He gave away much wealth, but he did not succeed in materially reducing his fortune. He died a multimillionaire.

Carnegie made excuses for his enormous wealth by regarding himself as the trustee of the people. He took charge of the money and then disposed of it as he trusted would be to the advantage of the people.

There are many wealthy men who beguile themselves into a similar belief. They regard themselves as divinely entrusted to care for the public and to use the wealth which rightly belongs to the public as they believe is best for the public.

That sort of belief is very similar to the divine right of kings. It is dying more slowly. It is beginning to dawn on people in general that a system which permits any man to accumulate vastly more money than he can use in his lifetime, while other people are starving is not intelligent. It is a system which has bred O.B.U.'s, I. W. W.'s and Bolshevists. It will eventually destroy our civilization if we do not have the courage to uproot it.—Albertan.

Optimism

That Blaimore possesses at least one real optimist, we have judged from the fact that a young man, who but three weeks ago ignored that great and noble army of bone diets, has already invested in a two-seated perambulator.

Drowning of Clarence Wright

A cloud of gloom was cast over the little village of Burnis on Sunday afternoon last, when the news spread of the drowning of Clarence Cochran, the sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Wright. The boy, with his brothers, had been cruising along the Old Man river about three-quarters of a mile west of Burnis. Whether the lad took cramps from wading in the water, or in some way lost his balance and failed to recover consciousness is not known. An alarm was made by his brothers, but when help arrived it was found that there was no hope for recovery. The body was taken from the water, and after a short inquest was taken to Coleman by Undertaker Davies and prepared for burial. Interment took place on Tuesday afternoon at Blaimore, the Rev. Haggood officiating. Clarence was the eldest of five sons, and was a very bright and promising lad. To the bereaved parents we tender our sympathy. A younger brother had a very narrow escape from drowning in making several attempts to rescue Clarence.

Fatal Auto Accident

The news of the accident which resulted in the death of Mrs. Besale Macdonald, of Bellevue, was flashed over the wires from Davenport, Wash., to friends in The Pass on Sunday last. Mrs. Macdonald was enroute with her husband by motor to Seattle, and the car was being driven by Mrs. Macdonald when suddenly approaching another car and to avoid a collision she swerved the car to the left and it went over into a ditch. Both were pinned beneath the wreckage, and were removed to the Davenport hospital, where Mrs. Macdonald, soon after succumbed as a result of her lungs being pierced by the wreckage. Mr. Macdonald lies in a precarious condition in the same hospital. The accident happened about six miles out of Davenport on the highway.

Mrs. Macdonald was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niven, of Lethbridge, Alberta, formerly of Frank, and was married about four years ago. She leaves besides her husband, and parents, several brothers and sisters, most of whom are married and scattered throughout Alberta. As a woman she was of a most amiable disposition and highly respected by all with whom she became acquainted.

Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald had resided in Bellevue for the past four years, where Mr. Macdonald had established a prosperous drug and stationery business.

For several months Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald had been planning on their holiday trip, which they hoped would cover at least two months, and left Bellevue on Tuesday of last week.

The remains of Mrs. Macdonald were taken to Lethbridge, where interment takes place today in the family burial plot. Service will be conducted by the Rev. H. Peters, of Bellevue, and a large number of Bellevue people will attend.

The sympathy of all goes out to the bereaved husband and relatives.

Notice!

On account of the funeral of the late Mrs. Wolstenholme, there will be no Union Sunday School on Sunday.

Mackenzie King Is Liberal Leader

Ottawa. — Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, minister of labor in the Laurier administration, is the new leader of the Liberal party. He was acclaimed on the eve of the close of the national Liberal convention, when his most formidable rival, Hon. W. S. Fielding, moved that his election be made unanimous. Mr. King, who subsequently spoke, was given an ovation, as was also Mr. Fielding, when he congratulated his successful opponent on his victory.

Mr. King was elected on what is officially the fourth ballot, but, as a matter of fact, only three votes were taken. This because some of the delegates cast their votes in the third ballot before Hon. George E. Graham had announced his decision to retire and the ballot was thrown out. There was a similar mixup when a number of delegates voted before D. D. McKenzie retired. As a result it was decided to take the fourth ballot on number five ballot papers. With the contestants reduced to two in number, the interest in the final vote was intense. The vote, as announced by Hon. G. H. Murray, chairman of the convention, was 476 for Mr. King and 438 for Mr. Fielding, majority for the former of 38.

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

Bread Shortage In London

British Labor Situation Is Still Unchanged and Strikes Continue. London. — There is virtually no change in the labor situation. The strikes of bakers and Yorkshire miners are still unsettled; but the railway position in London is resuming its normal condition. The situation at Liverpool is greatly improved, but the tramway strike continues and there is a great scarcity of bread.

It was announced in the house of commons that for the week ending July 26, the coal output was nearly fifty per cent. under the previous average. Other interesting announcements in parliament were that the government was preparing a bill for future regulation of the liquor trade and also that in a few exceptional cases Germans were being admitted to England to trade, under close scrutiny. No indication as to the contents of the bill with regard to the liquor trade was given.

In the east end of London, where the bread shortage is most acute, queues formed outside the independent bakeries, but were mostly disappointed, for the bakers, after working continuously for thirty hours, displayed signs reading "Closed for the day for rest."

A rumor was made on a busy street a notice appeared that another batch of bread would be ready in the afternoon.

The strikes on the Southwestern railway and in the South London tube were violently urged.

Sunk Bolshevik U-Boat

London. — A Bolshevik submarine has been sunk in the Baltic Sea by the British torpedo boat destroyers Valorous and Vancouver, according to an official statement issued by the admiralty.

To Curb Profiteers. London. — The government's bill providing prosecutions and penalties for persons found guilty of profiteering has passed the first reading in the house of commons.

Haig's New Title

London. — Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, who has been raised to the peerage by King George, will take the title Earl Haig of Bemer-side.

U. S. Lecturers Are Classed As Intruders

British People Would Settle Their Affairs Themselves.

London. — Answering a question in the house of commons as to whether the government considered informing the U. S. citizens here for a prohibition campaign that "the British electors prefer to settle their domestic questions for themselves," Edward Shortt, secretary of home affairs, said:

"I am disposed to agree with the suggestion that the British people can settle this matter for themselves, but, as I have stated, I do not think this step by the government necessary."

The first part of the home secretary's answer was cheered.

Exemption Cases

New Judgment Has Important Bearing on Legality of Orders-in-Council.

Montreal. — A judgment which may have an important bearing on all exemption cases under the Military Service act, in that it questions the legality of an order-in-council cancelling exemptions which have been duly and legally granted under the letter of the act, was handed down by Judge Leet in the case of Lafard vs. Senecal.

It is indicated in the judgment that it may be necessary to rehear most of the cases. The judgment says that no order-in-council could abrogate penalties imposed under the Military Service act and likewise should not be allowed to cancel exemptions granted.

Britain's Thanks

Formal Reception Given Military Leaders and Others for War Services.

London. — Marshal Foch of France, the allied chief in command, and various military and auxiliary services of the Great Britain that served in the war, were given a formal vote of thanks by the house of commons. The vote included mention of the British women's organizations.

The formal thanks of the government is part of the recognition given for war services. King George made known his recommendation for titles and large money grants to a number of the commanding officers of the land air and sea forces.

Many U. S. Shopmen On Strike

Movement in the Unauthorized Walk-out From Railways Still Spreading.

Chicago. — Leaders of the Chicago district council of the Federated Railway Shopmen's union said that 725,000 was a conservative estimate of the number of shopmen on strike throughout the country and that the movement was still spreading. They declared violence would not be countenanced by the organization and so far as they knew no mail trains had been interfered with.

Japan Respects Chinese Sovereignty

Tokyo. — Viscount Uchida, the Japanese foreign minister, is a statement, declares that Japan does not intend to claim any rights affecting the territorial sovereignty of China in Shanghai. He promises that the Japanese troops will be withdrawn immediately an arrangement is concluded with China. Japan, moreover, the foreign minister's statement adds, is considering the establishment at Tientsin of a general foreign settlement instead of a purely Japanese settlement.

Resign From Police Union

London. — The loyal police of Birkenhead, across the Mersey from Liverpool, have unanimously resigned membership in the police union as a protest against the latter's action in calling a strike. The men comprise about half the Birkenhead police force.

This is the first instance of loyal police in any of the strike areas openly repudiating the union.

Training Canadian Wives

London. — British wives of Canadian soldiers going out to settle in the Dominion now number 30,000. The movement initiated by the Khaki college to give special training to these for Canadian life has been, remarkably successful.

Invite Foch to U. S.

Paris. — Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the allied army during the war, is reported by the Echo de Paris to have been invited by the United States government, as well as several organizations in that country, to visit America.

Police Favored Strikers

Sensational Testimony Added To Evidence in Case of Seditious Conspiracy.

Winnipeg. — Direct evidence that the city police stood by and watched the strikers, on the first day of the strike, while they deliberately maltreated citizens on their way to work, trespassed and destroyed property, was given at the trial of the eight strike leaders by A. A. Riley, of the "Citizens' committee of one thousand," a "capitalistic concern" and that it was formed for any other purpose than endeavoring to continue the operation of public utilities during the strike was also tendered by Edward Parnell, of the Spicers-Parnell Baking company, at the morning session. Sandy Cuthbert, of the city street commissioners' department, also told of threats that had been made if he did not quit work. He stated that one of the strikers, an Austrian, a former employee of this department, had threatened to kill him.

R. B. Graham, crown prosecutor, was the first witness called at the afternoon sittings of the court. He stated that the police were formed to remain on duty by the strike committee but could have been called at a moment's notice and that at the outbreak of the trouble in Winnipeg they were not subservient to the orders of them, but rather the strikers.

A. J. Riley, manager of the Canada Bread company, gave evidence that he had no notice of the strike until about 2.30 p.m. the first day of the strike. That evening, said the witness, an organized gang, two trucks loaded of "strong-arm men," came from downtown under the leadership of a man named Winters, whom witness believed was organizer for the carpenters. These men forcibly entered the building, shut off the machinery and prevented the men from working.

"In response to a call by telephone to call a police officer came," said witness, "and as we entered the building Winters came out. Speaking to the officer he said: 'We've cleared the last man out — each out.' The policeman replied: 'That's fine.' Turning to the policeman, I said: 'This is pretty tough luck; they've done some damage,' and he replied: 'I know, but the people are not going to stand for your actions — each like this you know.'"

Rioting At Liverpool

Soldiers Charged Mob With Bayonets and Disturbances.

Liverpool. — Troops at midnight charged with bayonets and dispersed a crowd of persons outside St. George's Hall. Several of the soldiers were beaten with axe-handles by the mob. At the same time, firing was heard in the Scotland road district. Details of the trouble there have not yet been received. The clash outside of St. George's hall resulted from an attack on a sentry by rowdies who endeavored to take away the sentry's rifle. The sentry fired his gun in the air and a squad of troops responded and charged the disturbers.

French Food Plan Is Success

Paris. — The plan recently adopted by the French food ministry to reduce food prices is working successfully in some of the French cities. At Havre eggs have been reduced from $1.20 per dozen to 60 cents, onions from ten to five cents per pound, and potatoes from four to two cents per pound. The reductions in some foodstuffs vary from 20 to 50 per cent.

Santiago, Chile. — The Chilean senate unanimously approved the entrance of Chile into the league of nations.

To Guard Against National Bankruptcy

Strong Tariff Resolution

Text of Resolutions Submitted to the National Liberal Convention.

Ottawa. — The full text of the tariff resolutions submitted to the national Liberal convention was as follows:

"That the best interests of Canada demand that substantial reductions of the burdens of customs taxation be made with a view to the accomplishing of two purposes of the highest importance: First, diminishing the very high cost of living which presses so severely on the masses of the people; second, reducing the cost of the instruments of production in the industries based on the natural resources of the Dominion, the vigorous development of which is essential to the progress of our country."

"That to these ends, wheat, wheat flour, and all products of wheat, the principal articles of food, farm implements, such as farm tractors, mining, flour and sawmill machinery and repair parts thereof; rough and dressed lumber, gasoline, illuminating, lubricating and fuel oils, etc., net twines, and fishermen's equipment, cements and fertilizers, should be free from custom duties, as well as the raw material entering into the same."

"That a revision downwards of the tariff should be made whereby substantial reductions should be effected in the duties of wearing apparel, and footwear, on other articles of general consumption (other than luxuries) as well as on the raw material entering into the manufacture of the same."

"That the British preference be increased to 50 per cent. of the general tariff, and the Liberal party hereby pledges itself to implement by legislation the provision of this revision when returned to power."

Troops Refused To Obey Orders

Mutiny Caused Polish General To

resign. — A despatch to the Vorwarts from Bromberg, province of Posen, says it has been learned that the real reason for the resignation of General Musnik, commander of the Polish troops in Posen, was that there had been sanguinary mutinies of Polish troops in Posen, Gnesen and Warthe, and also at the front.

Enemy companies and even battalions, the despatch says, refused to obey orders and maltreated their officers. In the Warthe camp, officers, who endeavored to have resort to arms, were shot dead or were badly wounded. The reason for the disturbances is given as growing discontent on the part of the soldiers at the Russian system, which Musnik introduced.

He will proceed directly to his specially reserved quarters at the citadel, where he will be received by the official representatives. The following day the official reception will be held at the parliament buildings, where addresses of welcome will be presented by Sir Lomer Gouin and Mayor Lavigneur. The prince will remain in Quebec until Sunday the 24th inst.

Kaiser's Trial In London

London. — The allies have not altered their decision to hold the trial of the former German emperor in London. Andrew Bonar Law, government leader, announced in the house. He said no action in the matter could be taken until the German peace treaty was ratified.

U. S. Takes Action To Stop Profiteering

Washington. — Anti-trust suits against the great meat packing firms were announced by Attorney-General Palmer as the first concrete development of the government's campaign to reduce the high cost of living.

By special prosecutors. The evidence in the investigations of the federal trade commission and before congressional committees as a great commission in control of food products, are to be hauled again before the federal courts by special prosecutors. The evidence in hand, Attorney-General Palmer declared, indicated "a clear violation of the anti-trust laws."

While he was announcing prosecutions of the packers, Attorney-General Palmer was unleashing his special agents on a country-wide trial of profiteering and food hoarding. These prosecutions come under the food control law.

All United States attorneys were instructed to arrest and seize hoarders, and label them under federal law. Another major development of the day was the making public of the federal trade commission's report on the shoe industry investigation. This report charges that the high price of shoes is due to excessive profiteering from every dealer in the trade. Packers, tanners, manufacturers and retailers all share in the blame. The report was placed before Attorney-General Palmer.

"If we cannot increase production," he continued, "we shall go straight to national bankruptcy. Neither increased production nor reduced expenses alone will be sufficient. We have got to do both if we are to pull through and turn the corner. The balance between expenditure and revenue is definitely and seriously less favorable than when I made my budget statement. Both sides of the account are falling to realize expectations."

"The delay in the conclusion of peace involved greater naval and military expenditure, and one or two new blocks of expenditure have been sanctioned."

Mr. Chamberlain cited an additional £20,000,000 for pensions and increased naval pay and £4,500,000 for the police. On the receipts side, the speaker continued, the decision to continue control of food meant delay in realizing on the vast trading in stocks of the food industry and, therefore, £70,000,000 from that source will not reach the exchequer this year.

The whole government, Mr. Chamberlain said, saw the seriousness of the situation and was endeavoring to find a remedy.

The Order Of Merit

Lloyd George Receives Token Of Appreciation From The King.

London. — King George has conferred upon David Lloyd George the Order of Merit as a sign of his appreciation of Lloyd George's war services. In a letter to the premier, dated Buckingham Palace, August 5, announcing the award, the King says:

"My Dear Prime Minister: 'Honors and rewards to officials of the army, navy and air forces have been submitted to parliament. I me regret that it is not possible to express the nation's grateful recognition of the persistent services rendered by the prime minister, both in carrying the war to a victorious end, and in securing an honorable peace. To rectify somewhat this omission, and, personally, to mark my high esteem, I give me great pleasure to confer upon you the Order of Merit.

"Believe me, 'Yours very sincerely, (Signed) 'GEORGE, R.I.'"

Queen Victoria Statue

Victoria, B. C. — The Prince of Wales is to be invited to lay the corner stone in connection with the mounting of the statue of Queen Victoria in Parliament Square. The Harrison liner Historian is bringing the statue to this city. The monument is of bronze and will be mounted on Swedish granite. It was carved in England before the war, but shipmen was prevented by the breaking out of hostilities.

Rumania Must Observe Terms Of Armistice

Paris. — Nicholas Misiu, of the Rumanian peace delegation, was summoned before the supreme council which gave him a communication from his government, saying that the Rumanian ultimatum to Hungary cannot be recognized by the peace conference and calling upon the Rumanians to live up to the armistice terms. Misiu said that the Rumanians were taking back supplies which German Field Marshal Von Mackensen took from them, but this explanation did not alter the decision of the supreme council, which was unanimous.

While the French hitherto apparently were inclined to regard the Rumanian occupation of Budapest favorably, it was evident at the last council meeting that they have changed their position since the Rumanian ultimatum and are now heartily in accord with the British and United States position which the Italians have supported consistently.

It was made clear at the meeting that the Rumanian ambitions would cut off the communications of Central Europe and make it impossible to control the situation.

The text of the Rumanian ultimatum reads as follows:

"The Rumanian supreme command makes the following conditions upon which it will accept the cessation of hostilities requested by the Hungarian government."

"The Rumanian supreme command will give up the occupation of all Hungary if the Hungarian supreme command agrees to deliver all material of war of every kind which remains in possession of the Hungarian troops and state."

"Equipment of all kinds needed for the army of 300,000 men must be handed over along with the following: 50 per cent. of all the rolling stock which still belongs to Hungary, according to the records of the Hungarian state; 50 per cent. of all the material which exists in Hungary and is used for the construction and repairs of rolling stock; 200 touring cars; 400 motor trucks in good condition; 30 per cent. of all livestock animals of all kinds which exist at present, according to the records in Hungary."

Effect Of Tariff Changes On Fruit

Effect of Tariff Changes on Fruit. The Fruit Commissioner's Branch of the Department of Agriculture has made a statement to the effect that apples are not affected by the recent tariff changes. The only change in fresh fruits is the removal of the tax. Fresh tomatoes and fresh vegetables are same rates as formerly, with the exception of the removal of the war tax. As to potatoes, when imported from a country which imposes a customs duty on potatoes grown in Canada, the tariff is as follows: British preference 12½ cents, intermediate 20 cents, and general tariff 25 cents per bushel.

Moose Jaw. — On the island in the middle of Johnston Lake, thirty-five miles southwest of the city, the Dominion government has a party of photographers engaged in snapping bird life of the island. For some years the island has been out of bounds to hunters and as a result it has become the refuge of thousands of birds of every kind and description.

Greatest Nation In World. Major Gordon (Ralph Connor) says: "Great Britain is the greatest country in the world. No one knows all the British people have done for the winning of the war. Indoresse British Seaman Fund President Wilson Eulogizes Part Played by British Seamen in the War.

New York. — "I am very glad indeed to have an opportunity to add my voice to the tribute," President Wilson writes in a letter received at the national headquarters of America's tribute to British merchant seamen, 665 Fifth Avenue. The organization is organizing a nationwide movement to raise a large fund in the United States to aid the 30,000 British civilian sailors who came out of the war maimed and disabled.

President Wilson's letter says of the British merchant seamen: "Along with our gallant seamen, they have rendered a service to humanity in the great war which has just ended, which enrolls them among the true servants of freedom and civilization. I am sure that I am speaking, when I say this, for the people of the United States, and particularly for the American seamen who have taken a like part in the great enterprise of liberty."

Mexicans Seize Property. El Paso. — Forty-five hundred acres of farming and timber lands valued at $112,500 (gold) belonging to Canadian and United States companies, have been ordered condemned and taken over by the state government of Chihuahua under article 27 of the new constitution. John C. Hayes, general manager of the Babcock & Wilcox company, notified of this action, as were the Madera company officials.

Small but Potent. — Parmenter's Vegetable Pills are small, but they are effective in action. Their fine qualities as a corrector of stomach troubles are known to those who have taken them in constant demand, everywhere by those who know what a safe and reliable remedy they are. They need no introduction to those acquainted with them, but to those who may not know them they are presented as the best preparation on the market for disorders of the stomach.

Bolsheviki Boulevard

One of Most Interesting Spots in New York at Luncheon Hour. Lower Fifth avenue from the Waldorf to the Flatiron building—is one of the most interesting spots in New York at the luncheon hour. Some wag has named it Bolsheviki Boulevard. The sidewalks on both sides of the street are crowded with young foreigners who step out of the side streets from the skirt and suit and waist factories.

The consumption of cigarettes in this area during the hour reaches the many thousands. Old men, middle-aged and the young smoke fearful smelling cigarettes. A hundred languages from Yiddish to Hindustani are spoken.

They gather in little groups and always there is an argument. Hands wag wildly, and now and then coats are removed and a free for all scrap occurs.

Weaving in and out of the crowds in a steady promenade are dark-faced girls with healthy red cheeks and jet black hair who hanker with the men and if a burly gurdy plays a popular air, perhaps there will be an impromptu dance in the middle of the street.

It is a milling, jostling crowd and bewildered men, selling the "New Mir," the Jewish Morning Journal, and other papers in foreign languages make a tidy sum. The foreigners like the papers with the screaming headlines. A circulation manager once tried to send a group of boys among the crowd with a staid evening paper to see what would happen. Not one copy was sold.

Snappy young men in checkered suits and striped collars sometimes start a dice game in a doorway. Lookouts are posted and at a given signal the game ends and they wander off nonchalantly—winking knowingly to their brethren.

Every block has its strike. But despite the labor troubles in the cloak and suit belt, the workers seem to be prosperous. Many made as high as $85 a week. And when it is considered that they have been in this country only a few years and that many do not even speak the English language, it is well worth remarkable.

Their Worthy Capital.

Paris. — Premier Clemenceau has cited the city of Paris in army orders as follows: "The city of Paris, a capital magnificently worthy of France, animated by patriotic faith, which never faltered, bore with firm and smiling courage frequent bombardments by aircraft and long range guns from 1914 to 1918, and has added countless chapters to her glory."

Every time a man's neighbors kick it makes him sore.

The Pathos Of Devastation

France Had Visible Aspect of Having Been Bled White.

France's loss of manpower is one of the obvious things. Six months after the armistice there were women conductors upon the street cars, women working about the railroad yards, women everywhere in the fields.

France had a visible aspect of having been bled white. Men along in the forties could be seen in soldier uniform and everywhere there seemed an actual shortage of human power. It is sad to remember that losses, showed a decrease of 800,000—800,000 more deaths than births.

I traversed the whole distance of the French front. The pathos of that devastated territory is beyond words. The all too homeless people camping in wrecked buildings with windows screened with paper. Patient peasants toiling northward with scanty furnishings for the home they hoped to return to were poignant sights when one had come fresh from the regions toward which they were going and knew that no roof stood in all the land.

Canada's Wheat Place.

In average yield in bushels per acre of wheat in the great wheat growing countries of the world, Canada is fourth among eleven countries. The United Kingdom is first with 31.9 bushels, Germany next with 31.8 bushels, Austria third with 20.2 bushels, and Canada fourth with 20.0 bushels per acre, according to statistics compiled by the Department of the Interior.

Recalls a Tragedy.

Capture of a British convoy and two guns by Afghans in the Khyber region recalls the terrible tragedies connected with that district in 1841-2, and which culminated in the extinction of a British column in Khyber pass, while retreating from Kabul to Jellalabad, but one survivor coming through.—Hamilton Spectator.

KEEP CHILDREN WELL DURING HOT WEATHER

Every mother knows how fatal the hot summer months are to her children. Cholera, infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery, colic and stomach troubles are rife at this time and often a precious little life is lost after a few hours' illness. The mother who keeps Baby's Own Tablets in the house feels safe. The occasional use of the Tablets prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if trouble comes suddenly—as it generally does—the Tablets will bring the baby safely through. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Cablegrams numbered 1,084,956, as compared with 1,124,935 in 1916. Employees in the service of telegraph organizations numbered 7,100, of which 3,996 were male and 406 female operators. Other officers and employees numbered 2,608. Salaries and wages amounted to $3,278,450, as compared with $2,890,230 in 1916. The aggregate of salaries and wages in 1917 was equal to 77.2 per cent. of operating expenses ($4,243,950), as compared with 68.9 in 1916, as stated in the Canada Year Book.

Livestock Prices Are Normal

Cattle Purchase by Manitoba Government Is Now Delayed.

Winnipeg. — As the result of information received by Hon. J. A. Macdonald, provincial minister of agriculture, purchase of cattle by the government from the farmers of Alberta will be considerably delayed. A wire received from one of the provincial agents at Calgary stated that at the present time the cattle market was normal and that prices were being well maintained. The message continued by saying that the farmers of Alberta were counting considerably on the government hay scheme and that many of them were holding on to their stock in the hope that they would be able to carry them through the winter as a result of the government's assistance.

It is conservatively estimated, however, that seventy-five per cent. of the stock south of the Red Deer river will have to be sold, the telegram adds. It is not expected, however, that the farmers will commence to sell for at least a month.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make This Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents and See for Yourself

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to rid the system of impurities and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with a fine oil. This is why: Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then add well, and you have a whole quart of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost of one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

Germany May Release Russians.

Paris. — Marshall Foch appeared before the supreme council Saturday afternoon in connection with the discussion of the Russian prisoners. The condition of the Bulgarian army was taken up. The council decided to inform Germany that all restrictions on the movement of Russian prisoners held in Germany have been lifted. Germany may now release such prisoners. There are between 200,000 and 250,000 Russian prisoners in Germany.

Carson's Advice.

Sir Edward Carson tells the United States to mind its own business. We think the United States ought to mind its own business. The business of minding your own business is much neglected these days, particularly by Americans. We are inclined to mind everybody's business but our own. We have enough business of our own to keep us busy for the next ten years if we would attend to it. Chicago Tribune.

For Frost Bites and Chills. — Chills come from undue exposure to slash and cold and frost-bite from the icy winds of winter. The prevention of either there is no better preparation than Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, as it stimulates the circulation and relieves the pain. The action of the oil is instantaneous and its application is extremely simple.

Western Canada Coal Fields

British Columbia and Alberta Have Wonderful Natural Resources.

Fernie, B. C. — The three international board members of the United Mine Workers of America, who are here from across the border in order to settle the strike of coal miners in southern British Columbia and Alberta, are tremendously impressed with the great coal resources of this province. The three men are Samuel Ballantyne, of Iowa; Samuel Caddy, of Washington, and William Dalrymple, of Oklahoma. These men are thoroughly familiar with coal fields in every portion of the United States and are students of European conditions in relation to coal production and coal markets.

What has particularly impressed the Americans visiting this field is the fact that in this southeastern corner of British Columbia there are more than 1,000 acres of proved coal lands carrying billions of tons and that the percentage of high grade coals is far in excess of any other bituminous coal field on the American continent, if not in the world.

Wise farmers never attempt to raise their crops in the political field.

Consistent Advertising Begets Confidence

The buying public has learned that the store which takes the people into its confidence through its advertising is the one in which they can expect to get the best bargains and the most satisfactory treatment. It knows that the store which advertises consistently and regularly has the best and most up-to-date stocks because this store sells its goods more rapidly than the one which does not advertise and, therefore, is not forced to carry over old stock from one season to another. The public knows that the store which advertises can place lower prices on its goods because it turns over its stock often-er than the store which does not advertise and therefore does not have its capital tied up in the slow-moving merchandise.

In advertising the local merchants find the only weapon with which they can best the mail order houses at their own game. This does not mean necessarily, only newspaper advertising, although that is the big gun in the battle employed by the successful merchant in his battle for trade. Advertising is a big word and it covers a big field. There is no longer to be found the man who does not believe in advertising. Every merchant believes in advertising of some sort. The placing of a display in a show window is advertising. The only difference between that kind of advertising and advertising in a newspaper is that where the one reaches dozens the other reaches hundreds. Attractive window displays are, of course, an important adjunct of any retail store.
They serve their purpose but this purpose is only to attract the attention of those who may be passing the store. There are other forms of advertising, such as personal solicitation, but printed matter must always continue to be the chief reliance of merchants in attracting customers to their stores.

To Photograph Heart Beats

A wonderful machine which has just come into use in the London hospital makes it possible for a doctor to sit in his consulting room on the ground floor of the institution and examine a heart-diseased patient who is lying in a bed in a ward on any one of the upper floors.

The machine is called the electrocardiograph, and its function is to register the heart-beats. The physician who is making the diagnosis keeps his eye on the machine; he does not need to see the patient.

In making use of the machine one of the patient's feet, and his two hands, are placed in three different small baths, each containing water. An electric wire is run from each of the baths to the machine. The machine has a needle which deflects or jumps with each beat of the heart, and so delicately is it adjusted,
that the slightest movement of the heart
is conveyed by the aid of the electric current from the patient's body into the water, and from the water along the wires to the recording needle.

By means of the wires it would be possible to extend the distance between the patient and the machine to nearly a mile, so that a doctor might sit in his office and diagnose the case of a patient who was bedridden in another part of the town.

If the needle of the machine jumps
irregularly or moves faintly, or in an uncertain, hesitating way, the doctor can see at a glance, just what is the matter.
The old-fashioned method of feeling the pulse only made known the bigger beats of the heart. The needle however, is reliable to the last degree, for it faithfully
shows even the most minute movement.

If, on the other hand, the doctor wants to keep an exact record of what the needle tells him, there is a camera built into the machine which photographs the movements, produces a record of the heart action exactly like the weather
chart produced by the recording barometers.

National Standard For Teachers

Glenn Frank, in his address at the Chautauqua on "The New Order versus the New Disorder," pointed out if there were an equal and just distribution of wealth, there would be no need for men like John D. Rockefeller to give away enormous sums as pensions for broken-down school teachers and college professors. Mr. Frank comes from the States and there is no doubt that the same condition of affairs exists there, an apparently exists over most of the world.
In Canada a school teacher may work up to the position of high school principal or inspector, it is true in some provinces, but if he moves to another province, he has very little chance of retaining that position. He has to start again at the bottom of the ladder. If a national standard of education is attained in Canada it will at least give the progressive teacher a Dominion-wide chance.
At present too many drop out of the profession; men to enter other and more lucrative fields; women to seek the protection and certainty of a home. The situation in Ontario is ably presented in a letter written by a correspondent to the Toronto Globe. The writer says:

"I think the teachers of Ontario owe you a debt of gratitude for interesting writing in their welfare to the extent of writing two paragraphs in today's paper
on the all-important subject of teacher's salaries."

"One would expect that while the new minister of education is making his reforms in regard to the period of time
which children must attend school, etc., he would also see that the teachers received adequate remuneration for their services and that it was necessary for them to go to the western provinces, or
in fact to leave the profession altogether, in order to obtain a living wage. Is it fair that teachers who put so much hard work and exhaust into their years of preparation—their fair, I ask, that they should not be at least as well paid as domestic servants or day laborers? It is the government that determines the standard of qualification for teachers. Then why does the government not set a minimum salary for teachers? It is no use leaving it to the trustees of schools to say what should be paid, for if the funds came out of their own pockets they could not guard them more carefully. It is really astonishing to see how jealous they are of their petty authority and the means they adopt to hold their positions
by keeping down expenses."

"I have in mind the case of one teacher who has had nine years' successful experience in teaching, and who was holding a responsible position, having been in that school for some time. Everything was satisfactory, and he thought it a very opportune time to ask for an increase in salary. They offered him just what he had been getting. For the matter of fifty dollars they let that teacher go.
What would fifty dollars mean to a wealthy school section? But that was considered before the interests of the children. The 'Albany Daily' wins out every time. Men will pay, yes and gladly, too, far more to have their cattle and pigs well stabled and cared for than to have their children comfortably housed while at school or to pay a competent teacher to teach them. A teacher's experience counts for nothing; a Normal
graduate will teach for less the first year, so she is the one who is engaged. Further, teachers are paid for ten months in the year and have to make money monthly on that pay. By appointing on their parents or friends during the holidays they can probably get out an existence, but very often six weeks of their well earned holidays, as well as the bulk of their savings have to be thrown away in taking a course in art or some other subject
in order to be able to hold their positions another year. For always there are changes in the curriculum, age limit, etc;
but never in teachers' salaries."

"We shall keep on hoping, however,
that when the minister of education has
the other affairs of his office settled to his satisfaction he will give a little attention to the matter of fixing a minimum salary for his teachers in Ontario."

Several of these machines are being successfully used in the Heart Hospital in London. The electro cardiograph room there is side by side with the X-ray room so that, if after using the machine to determine the strength of a patient's heart, the doctor wishes to see the heart itself, he has only to take the patient into the next room, turn out the light so that the room may become dark, and switch on the X-rays. The doctor is then enabled to see the heart beating. This X-ray examination is often invaluable since it shows at once the precise size of the organ—most necessary knowledge to have in some cases of heart disease.

One of the electro-cardiograph's greatest uses has been to examine recruits for the army. Over 12,000 of these have been examined by the machine. It made no false diagnosis, and passed no
unsuit men as being Class A.

As a matter of fact, the machine is more clever than many a medical man, for it can detect shamming. Many a man, on the day he was called up for medical examination, took some strong drug calculated to upset his heart, thinking that the doctors could not discover his ruse. But the machine did, and the

What Is Your Income?

These are sad, sad days for those who come under the income tax law, and we fancy there are quite a large number of single men who earn $1,000 and married men with $2,000 incomes who have for-forget that it isn't alone their salary that is taxed as income, but every receipt that helps to swell their revenue to the $2,000 amount. To arrive at the proper conclusion is proving no easy matter for quite a number of men, but by dint of adding 2 and 2 and answering the var-

ought to arrive at a proper conclusion.

at your income, and at the same time
